

Environmental commitment

At Showlite we take our responsibility of minimising our impact on the environment very seriously. We always consider the use of environmentally efficient materials, processes and equipment.

We undertake to make the most sustainable choice available including the use of low energy lighting and 'ShowWire', our new, reusable, plug together exhibition electrical wiring system that ensures all cabling is re-used rather than recycled after each event.

